Attending all Scouting events will be a blast! But please note that we run Scouting events and even though the venue may offer the chance to purchase adult beverages, Scouting America's official policy is you cannot drink alcohol at any Scouting event. Even if you are not in uniform or a registered leader, you are still sitting in the Scouting seating and representing the organization. Thanks for your understanding.